Retiring Presiding Officers of Industrial Tribunals, Delhi

21457 SHRI VISHWASRAO RAMRAO PATIL;

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state :

(a) What is the number of the presiding officers of Industrial Tribunals, Delhi going to retire from January, 1993;

(b) What is the number of Industrial) Tribunals which do not have their presiding officers;-

(c) whether it is a fact that there is shortage of presiding officers; and

(d) if so, whether Government are considering to give, extension to such retiring-presiding officers so that work of Industrial Tribunal should not suffer and workmen litigants could get justice as early as possible ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI PABAN SINGH GHATOWAR) : (a) to (d) According to Delhi Administration none of the Presiding Officers of their Industrial Tribunals is due to retire in January, 1993. At present there is only one post of Presiding Officer lying vacant and the tenure of appointment of two other Presiding Officers will expire on 31-3-93 and 31-5-93. Although there is shortage of Presiding Officers, Delhi Administration will take steps at the appropriate time to ensure that the post of Presiding Officers do not remain vacant. As regards the vacant post, Delhi Administration has already requested the High Court of Delhi to make available services of suitable higher judicial officers.
